

ADVANCED Shooting Incident Reconstruction November 4 – 8, 2019

Hosted by Lansing Police Department

This course requires participants to have already attended a 40 Hour basic course

Location

Lansing Police Department
Operations Center
5815 Wise Rd
Lansing, MI 48906

Topics Include:

- Advances in ammunition
- The philosophy behind a reconstruction
- Incorporation of bloodstain evidence
- The human body as a target: incorporation of wound tracks into reconstruction
- Report writing
- Current terminology
- Motor vehicle shooting scene
- Presentation of findings
- Case studies

Participants are required to bring the following items:

- DSLR Camera
- Tripod (optional)
- Laptop with Microsoft Word and Power Point
- All other training supplies will be provided

Registration

www.forensictrainingsource.com

Instructors

James P. Molinaro

- Instructor, UT National Forensic Academy
- Detective, Hunterdon County (NJ) Prosecutor's Office
- Lieutenant, New Jersey State Police (retired)
- Conducted more than 3,000 investigations

Howard J. Ryan

- Instructor, UT National Forensic Academy
- Lieutenant, New Jersey State Police (retired)
- Forensic Operations Specialist – Morris County, NJ
- Certified Police Training Commission Instructor
- Member, Attorney General's Forensic Science Commission

Learn more at www.forensictrainingsource.com

Fee

Course fee:

$1,000

Questions?

Contact Bill Robbins

865.851.6536 or bill@forensictrainingsource.com